

Charlotte "Char" Farlow

February 7, 1942 - February 13, 2020

Charlotte E. Farlow-Smith, "Char", Passed away on February 13, 2020 at her daughters residence, with her family by her side. She was born to Louis and Clara (nee: Betham) in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and was also raised there. In her later years she has lived in New Jersey. To Charlotte family meant everything. One of her favorite places to visit was Walt Disney World, a trip she made often to see Mickey, her favorite Man. Char loved to visit with her family and enjoyed the time they spent together. Char was an avid Philadelphia sports fan, never passed up or start a "Happy Hour" and loved to entertain and decorate her house for the holidays. Everything in her home and others homes she visited always needed to be organized and in a special place. She always managed to brighten the lives of those around her, and was a loving and caring mother, mom mom, and sister. Char will be sadly missed by her children: Karen (Joseph) Smith, Louis (Lisa) Pessa and Kimberly Pessa. She is the beloved mom mom to 10 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. Dearest sister of Nancy (Richie) Cannistraci and Lois Farlow. Charlotte is also survived by nieces, nephews, cousins and many good friends. Relatives and friends are invited to her visitation Wednesday eve 6-8:30pm at the Murphy Ruffenach, Brian W. Donnelly Funeral Home, 2239 S. 3rd Street Phila. A "Period of Remembrance", where all are invited to share will follow at 8:30pm. Burial private.

“ Too many memories to share! Many trips to Disney, the shore, my house and hers. For several years we saw Char every Thursday night. I was so happy to come home from work to visit. We ordered out and played cards and had lots of laughs. And - yes! She loved to advise and keep me organized! No one could hold a candle to her creativity and energy!
To her children, grandchildren, greats, and sisters and her army of friends - Be consoled that she made a happy life and was so appreciated. Loved her - she will be greatly missed!

“ i am so sad and heart broken over the passing of my cousin charlotte. We all know that we will all have our time, but whether its a short or long death...we are never ever ready. This was one of those fast,shocking ones. its very hard when you have a close nit family ,with many cousin and friends for your entire life. I am one of the lucky Farlow girls that had that great experience,even until today. I cherish an Love each and everyone.Charlotte was an inspiration to me while growing up and actually ,my whole adult life. Full of life,and always always fun..looking on the bright side of everything that life has to offer. So many Memories we have shared,whether good or bad we would get through them together. Funny thing is, when i look back I remember us always saying while still raising our children through some financial hard times,that we would talk about gas might get turned off ..or phone shut whatever the circumstance,we would laugh and find it all okay. Then we said we will never get high blood pressure or strokes when we are older,because we never hide anything or keep anything in..it is what it is ..and we were happy and had so much fun. My heart breaks for her children.grand and great kids family and too many friends to mention. Rest in peace My,cousin,My friend and My heart...I love You!! Until we meet again,save me a place with a pool,preferribly Disney. Miss you already!! LOVE YA! CATHY

“ Charlotte, my childhood friend into the teenage years, my heart is broken. You were always such a beautiful person inside & out. We had so many happy memories together. So sorry I cannot be there for you due to my ankle injury but I will definitely be there for you in spirit. I guess God picks the Best & Beautiful Flowers 1st for His beautiful garden. He sure has the Best now!! Life is never ended just changed to eternal life. I'm sure the angels came down & escorted your back home to your mansion, prepared by Him, where you will be united with your Beautiful parents who you missed so much. You will always be loved and never be forgotten. Your friend forever. Yolanda
