

Mark G Sabo

March 21, 1968 - September 21, 2020

Mark G. Sabo, peacefully passed away on September 21, 2020 at Chestnut Hill Hospital. Born in Philadelphia to the late Albert and Helen (nee: Komada) Sabo and raised in the Mt. Airy area of Philadelphia. A Special Agent who worked for the PA Office of Attorney General for the past 20 years and was a former police officer for the Philadelphia Housing Authority as well as the Cheltenham Police Department. Mark was an incredibly giving person who was respected by all who knew him. His generosity had no bounds even giving one of his kidneys to his wife to help her survive. The holidays were always memorable from the Snoopy decorations to the thousands of lights that illuminated his home like something straight out of the Christmas Vacation movie. There was nothing more important to him than the time he spent with his family and extended family friends. Some of his fondest memories were trips to Ocean City, MD and visiting his favorite bar The Horse You Came In On Saloon in Baltimore. He had a love for life and enjoyed everything along the way. Mark will be sadly missed by his wife of 21 years and best friend, Anna (nee: Borriello); loving father of Desire' (Ryan Tschoepe) Camorote and Wyatt Albert Sabo; dearest brother of Gregory Sabo; and by his many family and friends. Relatives and friends are invited to his visitation on Saturday morning from 9:45-10:50am at the Church of St. Agnes-St. John Nepomucene located at 319 Brown St. Phila., PA 19123. Funeral Mass will follow 11am. Burial will take place at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery Cheltenham Avenue-Philadelphia.

Memorial donations in Mark's memory can be made to the above-mentioned Church.

“ I will miss my friend Mark and his irresistible sense of humor for a very, very long time and I know that I will laugh a lot less in the future than I did during the almost 19 years that I knew him.

But Mark was, of course, much more than his wonderful sense of humor. He was also a serious man in the sense that he cared deeply about serious things, such as integrity, honor, duty, decency, and character. Most of all, he cared for his family with unwavering affection. He cared about doing his job to the best of his extraordinary abilities and always with integrity. No matter what the task, his guiding principle was “Do it the right way, or don’t do it at all.” He never took short-cuts or the easy way out. Mark would do anything for a friend, even, as was often the case, if doing so meant he had to put the interests of others before his own.

The world is a lesser place without him.

“ I met Mark in 2007 in the course of my law enforcement career. From the moment I spoke to him on the phone he sounded like a great guy. After meeting him and getting to know him over the course of that year he did not disappoint. Mark is one of the greatest persons I have had the privilege of calling a friend. Mark was always happy and positive. He cared more for the comfort and pleasure of others than himself. Mark and his family came into my life just as I started having children. I am proud they grew up calling him Uncle Mark (and let's not forget Aunt Anna of course). My children grew up with Wyatt attending birthdays, holidays, BBQs, Holy Communion, etc. Mark was a package deal. My family and I were welcomed into his family and circle of friends which is something we truly cherish. Its amazing Mark was able to surround himself with such wonderful and caring friends. My mother passed in March and Mark came right from chemotherapy to attend. I couldn't believe this guy! He apologized for being late which he was completely nuts for saying. He was a man among men. The world will be a colder place without his warmth and kindness. I miss my friend dearly. I am comforted in knowing that I have many great future memories to make with Mark's family and friends. God bless Mark, his family and friends. Rest in peace my buddy.

“ I worked with Mark at the Attorney General’s office in the 1990s. I recently learned of Mark’s passing and, although I haven’t spoken to him in many years, was deeply moved by the sad news of his passing. I will always remember Mark as a fine gentleman and a cop of the highest integrity. REST IN PEACE.

“ Mark, we will miss our adventures together and the good times we shared. I remember how hard we all laughed at the story of the Troll and Skittles. We will always have the memories and a piece of you in our hearts. Anna & Wyatt, we will always be here for you.

“ Thank you Mark for making a major impact on my life as your strength, determination and commitment to your family, job and health were limitless. It was truly an honor for me to have a colleague like you who was like family at work. You were a friend and co-worker with extraordinary grit, who fought your battle with cancer more than once. It's unfortunate that after such a vigorous battle, cancer took the life of such a spirited person. You leave a major void that can never be replaced. You will be sadly missed, quietly remembered and forever in my cherished memories. Know of my thoughts and prayers today and always, especially to Anna and Wyatt. Jim McCausland

“ My husband and I worked with Mark for over 20 years at the Attorney General's Office. During that time we became friends with Mark and Anna. I cannot even print on paper what Mark did for me and my husband during his battle with cancer 8 years ago.

Mark was a kind and generous person. Always there for everyone who needed him and was always happy to help. I cannot imagine not seeing him at work with his smiling face. He has a wonderful wife and a beautiful son that he adored.

Mark will be missed everyday and will always be in our hearts. He was taken to soon.

He will never be forgotten.

“ Mark and I were cops together at PHAPD, the one thing that I will always remember about his was his infection smile.
No matter what was going down on the streets there was one thing for sure, Mark had a smile on his face.
I was very saddened to hear that he had passed away today.
May he forever rest in loving peace knowing that he will be sadly missed by all who knew, and loved him...
Rest easy my brother in blue..

“ We have know Mark for many years. We shared family events and holidays. It was always so festive to his his snoopy decorations at christmas time. He was such a beautiful person, fun to be around, happy and up beat. His family always came first. He fought his battle long and courageously, and his life was taken much to soon. We loved you as a family member, He will be greatly missed and loved by anyone whose lives he touched. Rest in peace, Mark, free from suffering. You will be missed by all especially the Schneiderman Family.

“ The Krkoska daughters are so very sad to hear of Mark’s passing. His gentle, caring demeanor was always so evident. Mark took the time to check in on our parents, even in the midst of his challenges. He kept his parents’ spirit alive at St. Agnes-St. John church. Anna and Wyatt, you are in our prayers. “ In 1990 working at Strawbridge & Clothier Department Store (8th & Market) Philly - My life changed forever. Assigned as an Loss Prevention Detective working the floors of S&C I was assigned a partner who became so much more than a guy I just worked with as we tried to stop shoplifters. That fellow "Shoe Guard" was Mark Sabo. He became my very best friend, a brother and someone who has been very special to me for all these past 30 years. All the important moments in both of our lives and families were always connected. A very special Circle of Friends was created while at S&C with an awesome small group of folks that worked alongside with us. In fact thanks to a Pearl Vision Center that was located just outside of our S&C Store - Mark met his true love and wife Anna. I watched him walk in and ask her out on their 1st date and watch their beautiful life and marriage bloom. Our Circle of Family & Friends continued to grow over these past 30 years and its remains strong and unbroken. Without a doubt Mark was in the middle of this circle and made sure all of us stayed close and always were welcome. His strong faith and care for his family and friends was the two things that truly made me so proud to call him my buddy & brother. The Courage & Determination he had was always there and even more so in the past few years as he battled with the worse evil disease one could ever face. I will truly miss him in my life and so will all of us. I made a promise to him that our awesome circle of family & friends will remain unbroken. He will forever be in our hearts and soul. I love you Brother and Faith & Courage forever. Love to our entire Circle - Steve Davis (aka Schmoogs)
