“ A lot of you don't know m, but I'm Patti's sister Margie. I've never had the honor of meeting Lou, but I know from how he loved my sister that he was a good man. He and Patti are now together again as they were for so many years, and with they're beloved son, Richie. Only this time, there is no pain or sorrow. Because of circumstances caused by our mother, I didn't get to know Patti and Luke, or be part of their lives. My condolences to all of the wonderful Gallagher family and all other Family members. God's blessings to all

“ Uncle Lou. Always the first to smile and share your good nature and humor. Will always remember the fun you brought to every family gathering from starting up a baseball games in our backyard to breaking out a song at every wedding in our big family. Here's to you Uncle Lou. " It was sad when that great ship went down "

“ For Uncle Lou. Eddie Bracken once said to me that it didn't matter how well you could sing or dance, it just mattered how well you could perform.

No party will ever be the same.

“ Sending love to my Uncle Lou and his family. They are all together now. Uncle Lou was always able to pull one over on me, from the time he would take the heads off of my dolls when I was very young, to when he would tell me some crazy conspiracy that I still believed in my 40s. Love and Gratitude to you Uncle Lou!
