“ You earned your wings to fly high in the sky and have been promoted to being our guardian angel. I am glad you are now reunited with your parents, siblings and first love, Grandpop George and your son Michael. I know they were all at the heavenly gates just waiting for you with arms wide open. Please give them a hug and kiss from all of us. xo

Although your journey here on earth has come to an end our time spent and memories shared with you will live on in our hearts and minds forever. ♡ To me you truly meant the world. I have never met someone so humble, sweet and caring. You were patient, kind, polite and so appreciative of anything and everything. Your vibrant, full of life personality shined through everywhere you went. Your contagious laugh and smile were so very infectious to all. Every single person that came in contact with you instantly loved you. I mean how could they not?! I could sit and chat or watch movies with you forever. Just being in your presence made me happy!

I will cherish each of our moments spent together dearly. Our yearly birthday celebrations, our annual Easter gatherings at the imperial inn. How you would stop at the jewelry stand in China town each year to pick out a new beaded bracelet and how you would order the famous "Grasshopper" to drink at lunch/dinner! At Christmas time trying to pick out the perfect present for you and always trying to find a new angel pin for your to wear! I loved your beautiful/sweet voice and when you hummed along to a show or sang a song out loud for all to hear. The way you took Vanessa's face in your hands when you hugged her and how you always expressed your love for us all. ♥♥♥ So thankful for being able to get you to the beach just two years ago and us bringing you right up to the waters edge and walking/wheeling the streets of Wildwood with you trying to pick the perfect dinner spot.

You were always so accepting of me from the moment we met. Making me feel beautiful inside and out by giving the very best compliments! I love how from the start I was your granddaughter (no questions asked) and from the very first moment we met (NY Eve at your house back in 2001) our bond just continued to grow stronger and stronger through the years.

I am glad I was able to be there with you, holding your hand during your final moments here on earth. You were surrounded by people who loved you so very much. Watching you take your final breathe was one of the hardest moments of my life but knowing that you are no longer in pain and are now at peace helps to ease the sadness in my heart.

Thank you for being the very best grandmother, great grandmother and one of the best people I have ever known. Your memories will be kept alive always! ♥ Please keep a watchful eye over our family. Until we meet again, I love you sweet lady xo
